

CDVI UK Announces Participation in The Security Event

High Wycombe, UK, January 15, 2019 – CDVI, a leading access control manufacturer worldwide, announced its participation in The Security Event, a focussed security exhibition for the professional security installer. This three-day event at the NEC Birmingham will be held on April 9-11, 2019.

Many of CDVI's team of industry professionals are attending the event, including Paul Ramsay, General Manager, and Daniel Phillips, Pre-Sales Consultant.

"Our attendance at The Security Event highlights our dedication in providing modern and reliable Access Control solutions to all installers in the United Kingdom, while showcasing new innovative products." – Paul Ramsay, CDVI UK General Manager.

About The Security Event

2019 will see the return of a UK focussed security professional and installer exhibition, back at its traditional home at the NEC Birmingham. The Security Event is set to attract thousands of attendees over three days by providing a tailored content programme and access to the UK's leading security brands.
